Fair Play Policy, including the Use of Prohibited Substances and Practices

Fair Play

Within the context of Within the context of the activities and programs of BC Blind Sports and Recreation Association all participants shall agree to take part with a spirit of fair play and honesty and within the rules and regulations of BC Blind Sports and Recreation Association, Canadian Blind Sports Association and any other place of recreation or sport programs offered through BC Blind Sports. The participant is expected to:

1. Participate/compete in a spirit of fair play and honesty.
2. Participate/compete within the rules of their chosen sport.
3. Ensure the safety of yourself and others when taking part in activities and programs.

Use of Prohibited Substances and Practices

Within the context of the activities and programs of BC Blind Sports, all participants in BC Blind Sports activities shall abstain from consuming anything or taking any action which could negatively impact their ability to perform in their role, either on or off the field of play, while participating in BC Blind Sports Activities. All participants shall adhere to the zero tolerance policy of the usage, promotion, or distribution of banned substances or practices.

- The Canadian anti-doping policy and information can be found here
- The IPC Athlete Classification Code and International Standards can be found here